

OREGON SENATE (District, counties served, candidate)

7 (parts of Lane)

Jim Torrey

Jim boasts a solid track record of local leadership and will be a great fit for his diverse district.

8 (parts of Benton and Linn)

Sen. Frank Morse

A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator, Frank brings a balanced, moderate approach to problem solving.

10 (parts of Marion and Polk)

Sen. Jackie Winters

Jackie is a dynamic entrepreneur who has been a lifelong friend of Farm Bureau. A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator.

3 (parts of Clackamas, Marion, Washington, and Yamhill)

Sen. Bruce Starr

A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator, Bruce is a soft-spoken leader who brings laser-like focus to the issues.

16 (Clatsop, Columbia, and parts of Multnomah, Tillamook, and Washington)

Sen. Betsy Johnson

Betsy is an effective communicator with a strong voice in her caucus.

19 (parts of Clackamas, Multnomah, and Washington)

David Newell

David would bring a fresh outlook to the Capitol and would represent his district well.

20 (parts of Clackamas)

Sen. Kurt Schrader

Kurt could use his unrivaled expertise in the budget process to help small business and agriculture.

24 (parts of Clackamas and Multnomah)

T.J. Reilly

A hardworking small business owner, T.J. would offer valuable insight to the senate.

26 (Hood River and parts of Clackamas and Multnomah)

Carol York

Carol will bring a great combination of public service and small business success to the legislature.

10 (Lincoln and parts of Lane, Polk, Tillamook, and Yamhill)

Rep. Alan Brown

Alan has become a key player on business issues. A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator, he is a tremendous leader for his constituents.

OREGON HOUSE (District, counties served, candidate)

1 (Curry and parts of Coos and Douglas) Rep. Wayne Krieger

A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator, Wayne is a small-woodlands owner with a law enforcement background who brings passion to the issues.

4 (parts of Jackson and Josephine)

Rep. Dennis Richardson

A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator, Dennis is a determined, tenacious advocate for the issues that impact his district.

15 (parts of Benton and Linn)

Rep. Andy Olson

A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator, Andy is an engaged lawmaker who works tirelessly for his district.

2 (parts of Douglas, Jackson, and Josephine) Rep. Susan Morgan

Susan was named a 2005 Defender of the Family Farm. She is a no-nonsense legislator who gets things done.

6 (part of Jackson)

Rep. Sal Esquivel

Sal's consistent support of Farm Bureau issues earned him an "A" for the 2005 legislative session.

18 (parts of Clackamas and Marion)

Rep. Mac Sumner

A member of the House Ag Committee, Mac is a 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator who cares about farmers and ranchers.

3 (part of Josephine)

Ron Mauer

Ron would provide continued effective representation, serving the needs of his constituency.

7 (part of Douglas and Lane)

Rep. Bruce Hanna

A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator, Bruce is a rising star in his caucus with a solid business background and an excellent voting record.

19 (part of Marion)

Rep. Kevin Cameron

Kevin's background in small business and grassroots organization helped him waste no time becoming effective in his first term. An A-grade Legislator.