

(District, counties served, candidate)

23 (parts of Benton, Linn, Marion, Polk, and Yamhill)
Rep. Brian Boquist
 A 2005 Defender of the Family Farm, Brian understands how today's farmers and ranchers are affected by a broad range of issues.

24 (parts of Polk and Yamhill)
Rep. Donna Nelson
 A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator, Donna is a determined, energetic leader who continually fights for the interests of ag producers.

25 (parts of Marion and Yamhill)
Rep. Kim Thatcher
 Kim is a thoughtful, approachable lawmaker who brings small-business sensibility to the Capitol. A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator.

26 (parts of Clackamas and Washington) Rep. Jerry Krummel
 A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator, Jerry is a reliable representative who can be counted on to get things done.

27 (parts of Multnomah and Washington) Dominic Biggi
 Dominic has deep roots in his district and a strong business background. He understands the connection between rural and urban Oregon.

29 (part of Washington)
Terry Rilling
 Terry is a strong candidate who is in touch with the priorities of his district.

30 (part of Washington)
Everett Curry
 An extensive background of community service and engagement in key issues prepares Everett to be a great legislator.

32 (parts of Clatsop, Columbia, Tillamook, and Washington)
Rep. Deborah Boone
 A 2005 Defender of the Family Farm, Debbie understands her constituents and reliably supports the ag and natural resource communities.

35. (parts of Multnomah and Washington) Shirley Parsons
 Shirley represents an opportunity to bring common sense back to her moderate suburban district.

37 (parts of Clackamas and Washington) Rep. Scott Bruun
 A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator, Scott is an up-and-coming leader with a strong work ethic and family business experience.

39 (parts of Clackamas)
Rep. Wayne Scott
 Wayne is a driving force and effective strategist with an outstanding accomplishment record for Oregon. A 2005 Defender of the Family Farm.

40 (part of Clackamas)
Rep. Dave Hunt
 Dave channels his efforts effectively and brings a new depth to his caucus's understanding of agricultural issues.

48 (parts of Clackamas and Multnomah) Rep. Mike Schaufler
 A 2005 Defender of the Family Farm, Mike is a dedicated advocate for good public policy, empathetic to the needs of the little guy.

49 (part of Multnomah)
Rep. Karen Minnis
 Karen earned OFB's MVP Award for the 2005 legislative session. A rock-solid ag supporter, the speaker leads by example and has guided Oregon through difficult times.

50 (part of Multnomah)
Rep. John Lim
 A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator, John's extensive business background has produced an effective voting record.

51 (parts of Clackamas and Multnomah) Rep. Linda Flores
 A 2005 Defender of the Family Farm, Linda is a tireless advocate for agriculture and a great voice for bridging the rural/urban divide.

52 (Hood River and parts of Clackamas and Multnomah)
Rep. Patti Smith
 A rancher and chair of the House Ag Committee, Patti is a longtime ally of Farm Bureau and understands on-the-ground issues. A 2005 Defender of the Family Farm.

53 (part of Deschutes)
Rep. Gene Whisnant
 Known for being bright and personable, Gene brings a consistent voting record for ag producers and small business owners. A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator.

54 (part of Deschutes)
Rep. Chuck Burley
 A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator and lifelong outdoors enthusiast, Chuck brings intelligence and thoughtful leadership to the Capitol.

55 (Crook, Lake, and parts of Deschutes, Jackson, and Klamath)
Rep. George Gilman
 George is a 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator and effectively represents the interests of a vast natural-resource-dependent district.

56 (part of Klamath)
Rep. Bill Garrard
 A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator, Bill has a great track record in protecting private property and has been an effective chair of the House Land Use Committee.

57 (Morrow, Wallowa and parts of Umatilla and Union)
Rep. Greg Smith
 Greg is a vocal advocate for the interests of his district and his voting record earned him an OFB A-grade for the 2005 legislative session.

58 (parts of Umatilla and Union)
Rep. Bob Jensen
 A 2005 Defender of the Family Farm, Bob offers exceptional leadership on water issues that are vitally important to Oregon.

59 (Gilliam, Jefferson, Sherman, Wasco, Wheeler, and parts of Clackamas, Deschutes, Grant, and Marion)
Rep. John Dallum
 A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator, John is a friendly, consistent supporter of small businesses and family farms and ranches.

60 (Baker, Harney, Malheur, and portion of Grant) Rep. Tom Butler
 Tom is an effective chair of the House Revenue Committee and understands complex financial issues that are important to Oregon agriculture. A 2005 OFB A-grade Legislator.

VOTE!